The Easy Part

A friend was in the hospital to give birth to her first baby. As the labor pains became more frequent and severe, she gasped to the nurse, "Is the hard part about over?" The nurse replied, "Honey, this is the easy part. The hard part will last for the next 18 years." —W. R. Sumrall

Congratulations Johnathan!

Congratulations Johnathan and the Montgomery Therapeutic Recreation Center, Tigers Basketball Team for bringing home the Bronze medal in division 5 basketball in the USA Special Olympic 2018 Games!! Johnathan Johnson (#23), the son of Bishop Timothy and 1st Lady Sandra Johnson of Greater Bible Way Temple competed with the TRC Tigers in Seattle Washington at the USA Special Olympics. Johnathan's flight landed safely on Saturday, June 30th, with the games beginning on Monday. The team had been training for months in advance, competing locally and statewide preparing themselves for this special event. The nine team members competed against Georgia at the Olympics and was victorious. Way to go #23!

The players were recognized for all their hard work on the front page of WSFA News. It was exciting news.

Also the USA Special Olympics opening ceremonies was televised on July 1st on ABC! And different events were aired on ESPN throughout the week. We have a celebrity in our midst!

The team returned to Montgomery on Saturday, July 7th with the Bronze medal for Team Alabama. Go Tigers!

Congratulations Glenn!

Another addition to Greater Bible Way's success stories is Glenn Adams. He is the son of proud parents, Quentin & Dewania Milliner. Glenn committed to Murray State University on signing day after receiving offers and interests from the University of NC, MS State University, AL State University, and University of LA. Murray State awarded him with a 4-year scholarship for tuition, meals and boarding.

During his senior year he received numerous awards and honors including AB honor roll, the Principal's award, Cam Newton MVP, the Clue of the Defense Award and others.

While attending college he will be majoring in Electrical Engineering. We are looking forward to Glenn's future accomplishment as the Lord continues to give him strength and favor.

The New Teacher

A boy in Sunday school had been taught by the same teacher for a number of years. She had a way of telling stories and she always ended by saying, “and the moral of the story is . . .”

Eventually he moved up in Sunday school and had a new teacher.

After a few weeks, the minister asked the boy how he liked his new Sunday school teacher. He replied, “She is great; she does not have any morals.”

Christian Education Course Studies Site

Greater Bible Way Temple has launched its Christian Education Course Studies Site. This on-line learning experience makes teaching and learning easy from any device. It gives families the opportunity to study and discuss the word of God with their families in preparation to discuss the lesson on Sunday mornings during class.

Several lessons has already been posted to the site which includes: “I’m No Accident, When Sin Creeps In, Thriving in the Midst of a Cultural Storm, Where Do We Go from Here?, Am I a Christian?”, and lesson 6, which is “Does God Care?”

The course site allows communications between the Christian Education Director, Loni Fleming, and participants throughout the week. A discussion board is available for posting questions and comments concerning the weekly lessons. It’s a great tool for interaction before Sunday morning as we learn the word of God together. Thank God for the vision of our Pastor, Bishop Timothy O. Johnson, who has the people of God at heart.
